

Cooperator Dance Features Forecast

A hundred or so Greenbelt couples danced out the old year of 1948 last Friday night at the Cooperator's New Year's Eve dance.

Immediately after the orchestra welcomed 1949 with Auld Lang Syne, the "first Greenbelt town council meeting of the year" was tuned in. Council members and other citizens were heard singing original words to well-known melodies. Citizen Charles Cormack, for example, sang "They Wouldn't Believe Me." To Capital Transit officials was sent a petition, "We'd like to get you on a slow bus to Greenbelt."

Mayor Thomas Canning quieted an incipient political free-for-all by singing, to the tune of Auld Lang Syne, "Should Former Councils Be Forgotten?" and Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer sang "The Kinzer Report." Chief of Police George Panagoulis sang two numbers, including "Down By the Greenbelt Lake," to the tune of "The Old Mill Stream."

Participants in the wire-recorded farce were not identified.

Head Of State Dental Division Speaker At Combined PTA Meeting

Dr. Richard Leonard, chief of the dental division, Maryland State Department of Health, will be the main speaker at the combined annual meeting of the three Greenbelt Parent-Teachers Associations to be held at the Greenbelt High School on Wednesday, January 12, 1949, at 8 p.m. The High School PTA will be host this year to the Center and North End Elementary PTA's.

Dr. Leonard will discuss the sodium fluoride treatment for prevention of tooth decay, with emphasis on the effectiveness of this treatment for children. In preliminary test it has been shown that the use of sodium fluoride, which is painted on the surface of the teeth periodically, has reduced tooth decay by as much as 50 per cent with the greatest reduction being found in the case of children's teeth.

In addition to Dr. Leonard, there will be in attendance Dr. Engler, the Prince George's County Health Officer, Dr. James W. McCarl, and Mrs. Frances P. Stouffer who will discuss the dental health program in the Greenbelt schools. Dr. Roy I. Bridger and Dr. Harold S. Connors, Greenbelt dentists, will talk briefly on dental care for our children.

An effort will be made at this meeting to find a way to make the See PTA, Page Three

College Head Talks To Woman's Club

Education and Youth will be the topic on which Miss Marjorie Fraser Webster, head of Marjorie Webster Junior College, will speak at the next meeting of the Greenbelt Woman's Club. Mrs. Joseph L. Rogers, chairman of education, will be in charge of the meeting, which will be held on January 13, 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Daniel B. Branch, 13-H Ridge Rd.

Miss Webster, besides being president and owner of the junior college for girls, is also a teacher, dramatic reader and writer. She obtained her master's degree from George Washington University. She is very active in church work, and for seventeen years taught a Sunday school class at New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, where the pulpit in the chancel is dedicated to her. Miss Webster has been twice president of the District of Columbia Business and Professional Women's Club, and is now its public affairs chairman.

Mrs. Branch, as hostess, will be assisted by Mrs. Stanley Edwards, Mrs. Arthur Gawthrop, Mrs. Glenn Kitchin, Mrs. Alice Smith and Mrs. James Gobel. Music will be furnished by Mrs. William L. Moore, jr., pianist.

Legion Lays Plans For Town Directory

The Greenbelt American Legion Post 136 has designated Frank H. Riley, 38-M Ridge Road, as chairman of a special committee to prepare the 1949 Town Directory. This will be the sixth year that the local Post has undertaken this project. Members of the committee will meet again this Sunday, to discuss changes in format and possible additions to the directory. Present plans propose the distribution of the 1949 edition sometime in January.

Community Chorus Plans Concert On January 24

The Greenbelt Community Chorus is holding its annual spring concert January 24, at 8:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Center school. Plans are well under way, with rehearsals in full swing and guest artists signed up. Further details of the concert will be announced in later issues. Tickets are available from members now.

Members of the chorus are urged to attend all rehearsals from now till the concert.

Women Voters Hold U.N. Study Session

The second meeting and first study session of the United Nations study group, League of Women Voters, will be held Friday night, January 7, at 8 p.m. in room 223 of the Center school. It will be led by Dr. Gladys Wiggin of the University of Maryland education department.

Beginning with a study of the United Nations Charter the sessions are designed to cover all aspects of the United Nations Organization and operations.

Complete study kits are still available. All interested women (and men) are invited to attend.

NCJW Sponsors Book Display

To commemorate Jewish Book Month there will be a display of Jewish books and art objects in the Greenbelt Public Library from January 3 through 10. This display, to which the public is invited, is being sponsored by the Greenbelt Section of the National Council of Jewish Women.

In order to stress more interest in Jewish heritage, the Council has donated to the Public Library the book "Basic Judaism" by Milton Steinberg and has also donated to the J.C.C. Sunday School two books by Ben Edidin, "Jewish Holidays and Festivals" and "Jewish Customs and Ceremonies."

The next open meeting of the Section will be held on January 12 in the social room of the Center school.

Symphony Orchestra Resumes Rehearsals

The Symphony orchestra will resume rehearsals Sunday, January 9 at 4 p.m. in the Center school auditorium. Any new member interested in joining is invited, and instrumentalists are especially needed. Music minded people—watch the date and keep January 16 (Sunday evening) open on your calendar.

For further information call Greenbelt 4826.

BABY SITTERS MEET

There will be a meeting of the newly-formed baby sitter pool in the home of Mrs. Harold Rosenthal, 24-C Crescent at 8:30 p.m. tonight.

Council Raises Salary Ceilings; Plans Charter Change Meeting

New Year's greetings from Mayor Thomas J. Canning opened Monday's town council meeting, and a demonstration of new fire-fighting equipment closed it an hour later, with expeditious handling of routine business filling the interim period.

INFORMATION PLEASE

Friends or relatives of Almeda Drummond, who was a visitor in Greenbelt during the Christmas holidays, are asked to contact the Police Station.

GHA To Hold Annual Membership Meeting

The annual membership meeting of the Greenbelt Health Association will be held on Friday, January 28, in the home economics room of the Center school, at 8 p.m. Business will include the election of four members of the board of directors, financial report, and president's report. Abraham Drury, president of the Association, urged all members to attend the meeting. Nominations for the board of directors must be submitted by January 8, 20 days in advance of the meeting, according to the by-laws.

The Police Blotter

The dubious honor of being listed as the first "complaint" of the new year goes to Irwin Brown, 36-A Ridge. His parked truck was backed into by another auto, and damaged. The other party has agreed to pay for the damages.

Miss Phyllis Seips, 10-J Parkway was struck by an auto driven by Benjamin Griffith, 5-F Parkway last week. There were no apparent injuries, and no charges were made by the police.

Thomas Hill, 20-F Parkway, reported an auto accident involving his auto and another driven by Charles Doyle of Branchville. The mishap occurred at the intersection of Edmonston and Greenbelt Roads. There were no injuries and slight property damage.

The Greenbelt Rescue Squad was called to assist a young girl that had cut her knee severely. She fell from a table onto a toy, in her home. Several stitches were required to close the wound.

An auto belonging to Mr. Carl Reveal, 4351 Harrison St., N.W. of Washington, was damaged by another auto, while parked. The identity of the other driver is unknown.

There were seven complaints about misbehaving boys this past week. Types of misbehavior included: throwing radio tubes in an underpass; making a disturbance in the movie (this complaint was made by a patron and not the management); pushing a car down Southway Rd. without permission of the owner; shooting an air rifle; setting fire to brush near the tennis courts; throwing glass down the arcway to the National Guard Headquarters in the Center School; and shooting fireworks.

Wearing apparel was stolen from a clothesline belonging to Mrs. C. Leone, 8-U Laurel Hill, and a newsboy reported his papers were stolen from his doorway.

Skaters were driven from the lake last week, after being warned the lake was unsafe for that purpose.

A window in the home of Nathan Gerhoff, 7-A Ridge, was broken by a BB shot last week. Police know the identity of the owner of the rifle and appropriate action is anticipated.

A complaint about a prowler was received from a resident in the 20 Court of Ridge.

The Legion Home called the Police Department last week to request an officer. They wanted an annoying party removed.

'Hardest Job To Come'

The mayor expressed his appreciation for past cooperation of council members and urged continued good work and harmony on what he called the "hardest job to come," readying charter changes for State legislative action.

Albert Schaffer, president of the high school P-TA, extended an invitation to council members to attend the January 12 joint meeting of all Greenbelt PTA's when the topic for consideration will be the use of sodium fluoride as a preventive for dental decay.

Salary Increases

Salary increases were passed by the council after second reading, as follows: town manager's salary ceiling of $6,500 was raised to $7,000; recreation director's salary ceiling of $3,950 was raised to $4,500; and librarian's salary ceiling of $3,375 to $4,000. Positions of custodian with minimum salary of $2400 and maximum of $3,045, and janitor with minimum salary of $1,575 and maximum of $2,145 were approved.

Consideration of Councilman Allen D. Morrison's plan for the town government to buy or rent Greenbelt was postponed at his request.

Town Manager Charles T. McDonald reported that, following an appointment with the county appraiser, he will call a meeting of individual landowners within the town limits of Greenbelt with the council and members of the County delegates to the State legislature. At this meeting, requested earlier by the council, the subject for discussion will be the charter change recommended by Public Housing Administration to exclude the individual landowners from the boundaries of Greenbelt.

The council joined Councilman Frank Lastner in congratulating the town manager on the success of Christmas week celebrations.

Demonstrates Equipment

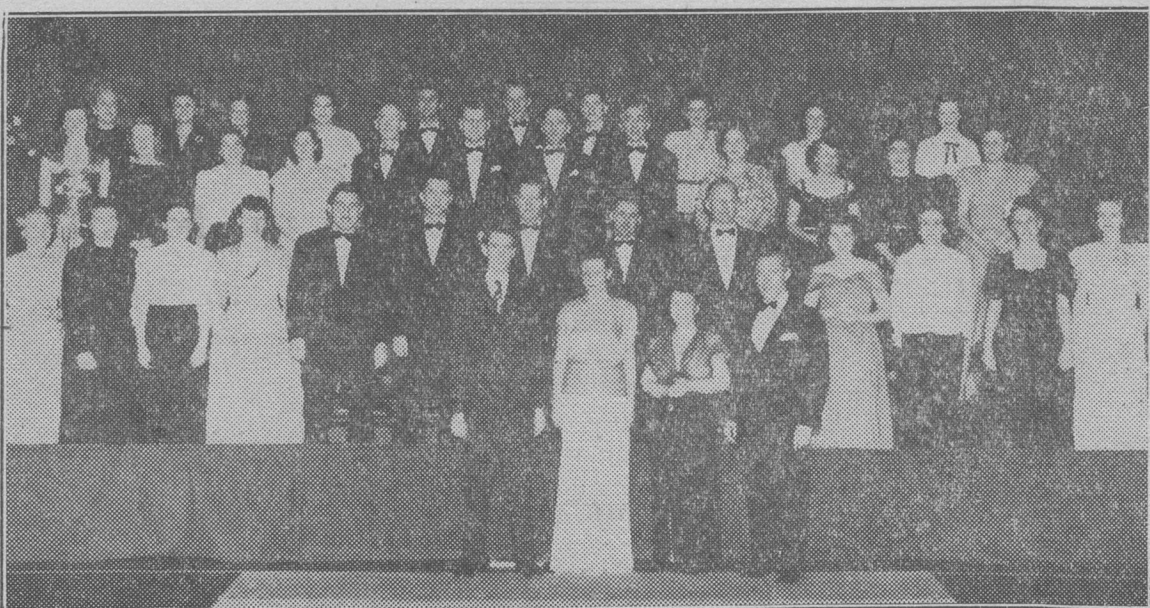

Lieutenant Albert Attick of the Department of Public Safety demonstrated the Scott Air-Pak following formal adjournment of the council meeting. The new equipment is designed to take the place of the old gas mask. A tank filled with purified air is attached by a hose to a mask, and secured by a stout belt around the waist. Several controls, including a readily visible gauge, insure the fire-fighter of sufficient air to safeguard him for a period of twenty minutes to one-half hour. A defroster inside the mask prevents clouding.

McDonald To Represent Town At Meeting

Town Manager Charles T. McDonald will represent Greenbelt at the quarterly meeting of the Maryland League of Municipalities in Baltimore on Friday and Saturday of this week. This is the first meeting of the League since its reorganization.

Cities and towns of the State of Maryland may become members and send representatives to the meetings at which problems of the various municipalities are presented and discussed. Where problems arise that are of concern to a number of towns, legislation may be formed and presented by League officers to the Maryland Legislature now in session. Mr. McDonald stated that League representatives are "on call" for additional meetings where matters of special interest arise.

Mind Your Own Business!

Sometime in February, GCS will hold its annual membership meeting and the stockholders will decide on the patronage return percentage. We want to put in our two bits' worth nice and early. It's too bad that this is always the one meeting of the year that most of the stockholders attend. That fact in itself shows that the members are not really interested in trying to have their own business run as efficiently and as well as possible. If they were, there would be the same turnout for the other quarterly meetings, and even for the board meetings WHICH ANYONE MAY ATTEND. To try to pack into one evening a whole year's report on how a business the size of GCS is run, and why, is just plain damned silly.

But if it has to be done that way, make it a business meeting and not a factional or sales meeting. We hope that the reports, especially the general manager's, will be brief and concise. And we hope that any action on complaints or suggested amendments to by-laws will be taken without railroading tactics that were used at the last patronage refund meetings. We may not agree with the suggestions brought forth, but let's at least disagree like human beings.

Coming Attractions

We have it from reliable sources that a decision on PHA's request for a Greenbelt rent increase will be handed down soon by National Housing Expediter Tighe Wood. We have also learned that the CLOSEST comparison that investigators could find for comparable housing was Falkland Village which happens to start in the 8300 block of 16th Street in the District of Columbia and extend over into Montgomery County. It is the only multiple-type housing built in either Prince Georges or Montgomery Counties at the time that ORIGINAL Greenbelt was built. The development consists of brick-constructed apartments, within a twenty-five minute, non-transfer, express bus service to downtown Washington.

It was built by private contractors for one purpose, and we bet it wasn't as an experiment for "model communities." However, Tighe Wood's office assures us that all of this and more will be taken into consideration in making a decision. It has also been stated that the committee which investigated Greenbelt homes did so impartially.

We hope that all of this is true. If it is, we can see no possible cause for a rent increase for Greenbelt.

(By the way—was your house one of those checked?)

Co-op Auto Insurance Places Third In U.S.

The Farm Bureau Insurance Companies, members of the Cooperative League of the U.S.A., report that during the first nine months of 1948 they continued the rapid growth which has led their automobile company to third place among mutual automobile insurance companies in the U.S.A. The Farm Bureau Insurance Companies are sponsored by the Potomac Cooperative Federation and Eastern Cooperatives, Inc., and provide a significant part of the budget of both organizations.

Cooperative development has never been more rapid or of more value to the consumer than in the insurance field. Because of the Farm Bureau Companies' insistence on operating in the interest of the consumer, and charging no more than necessary for its policies, the Companies have led the field in bringing down insurance rates on a number of occasions. During the first nine months of 1948, automobile and fire premiums written by the Farm Bureau Companies increase about 25%, and life premiums about 15%. Starting in the automobile field in 1926, the Companies expanded rapidly and now provide a wide variety of types of insurance in 12 states and the District of Columbia. Their home office is in Columbus, Ohio.

In Maryland the Farm Bureau Automobile Insurance Company insures more automobiles than any other company. Greenbelt's Farm Bureau insurance agent is Anthony Madden, a community leader since he came to Greenbelt in 1938.

Weiss - Liebman

Miriam Weiss, sister of Mrs. Elliott Bukzin, 34-L Ridge, was married last Sunday afternoon to Solomon Liebman of Washington. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Henry Segal at his home in Washington. The bride, attended by her sister, wore a camellia-white frock and carried orchids. The groom had as best man his brother Irving Leibman. A reception at Fan and Bill's Restaurant was attended by many of the bride's friends from Greenbelt.

After a honeymoon in Miami, the couple will reside in Washington.

Our Neighbors

By DOROTHY McGEE PHONE 5677

Although the Christmas tree ornaments are all tucked away until next year, the happy memories of the holiday season linger on. The small fry are still enjoying the newness of their bikes and doll carriages, and out-of-town visitors are bidding goodbye to friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Howe and daughter, Diane of 6-Q Plateau Place have returned from a visit to their family homes in Rochester, New York.

Mrs. Winfield McCamy, 7 Woodland Way enjoyed the holidays with both her sons home for Christmas vacation, Mike Loftus, a student at the University of North Carolina and Frank Loftus with his wife Shirley. Frank Loftus is working towards his master's degree at the University of Chicago. Another house guest was Miss Benedicta Santos, of Sao Paulo, Brazil who is at present employed at the Pan American Union in Washington.

Three year old Phillip Marinoff of 53-E Ridge happily announces that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Marinoff have presented him with a sister, Judith Norma, born December 17 at Leland Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Marinoff's parents are here for an extended visit.

Mrs. Ruth Conway and her daughter, Jane returned to their home at 19-B Parkway last Saturday from their Christmas vacation spent in Mrs. Conway's home town in Arkansas.

Among the friends and former friends who gathered at the new home of the Hans Jorgensens on 19-E Hillside for carol singing on the Thursday before Christmas, were Mr. and Mrs. E. Peter Winter of Washington. Mrs. Winter is the former Miss Dorothy Broad-bent.

Mrs. Frances Stouffer enjoyed the Christmas holidays, visiting in North Carolina.

Mary Jane Kinzer's Christmas was a particularly happy one this year with Mr. Kinzer here from New York City and young Bill home for the holidays from the University of Virginia. Making the family reunion complete were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott with their daughter, Sue. Little Sue, who has been here for several weeks, and Mrs. Scott will remain as house guests through January. At an open house party the Sunday afternoon following Christmas, the Kinzers greeted more than a hundred guests.

Nathaniel (Curley) Markfield returned this week from several days of skiing in New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ringel and their two children of 13-J Hillside returned Monday from a week in New York City where they attended a wedding.

Mrs. Sam Stutz and her three children of 14-Z Ridge returned Monday from New York City where they spent Christmas vacation.

Other holiday visitors to Gotham were Mrs. Isodore Russ with her son and daughter of 2-E Eastway and Mrs. Henry Mazlen and her two sons of 2-D Northway.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tierney, 7-L Southway became the parents of a daughter on December 28 at Leland Memorial Hospital.

The Bassett Fergusons held open house last Sunday afternoon at their new residence near Sandy Springs, Md. Since small fry were invited along with their parents, the three-story house was really full of Greenbelters during the afternoon.

The Tom Ritchies had as visitors this week his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Harrison of Hartford, Conn. and their two children, who are en route for a two month's stay in Florida.

The Robbie Robertsons returned from South Dayton, N.Y. in time for the last few minutes of the New Year's dance, bringing with them June's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Palmer, who are also on their way to Florida.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pfeiffer, former residents of Greenbelt, extend their sympathy to Mr. Pfeiffer, whose mother died recently after an operation.

Drop-Inn Plans Dance Night Every Friday

In order to pep up the senior high program at the Drop-Inn, Friday night will be turned into dance night for this group. Beginning tomorrow each Friday at the youth center, there will be dancing to the juke box, a door prize and entertainment, with orchestras on special occasions. Each week a committee will be formed to plan the following week's dance, thus giving everyone a chance to use his own ideas and to help with the work. Admission will be by membership card with an additional fee for the nights with an orchestra.

The junior high group will get off to a good start for the New Year with their monthly dance this coming Saturday. Admission will be the usual 15c with a door prize, mixers, and entertainment.

Special attraction this weekend at the Drop-Inn will be the presentation of the silver cup to the member with the best record of participation and cooperation in the Youth Center program for the month of December.

Gun Club Loses To Mt. Rainier

Number 2 team of the Greenbelt Gun Club lost to the 933 Gun Club team of Mt. Rainier last Monday night, 1373 to 1264. The local shooters were forced to take a lower score than they ordinarily fire because only four men fired and a dummy score had to be used in place of the missing team member. In each match fired in the League program at the University range, any number of persons can fire on each team, and the five highest scores are tallied for team total.

AAUW To Discuss County Wide Recreation Program

A proposed county-wide recreation program will be the topic of a panel discussion at the meeting of the College Park Branch of the American Association of University Women on Monday, January 10, at 8 p.m. in the Maryland Room, Home Economics Building, University of Maryland.

Members of the panel will be Mrs. P. B. Marsh, social studies chairman; Mrs. Clyde Everson, and Miss Yvonne Zenn. Mrs. Archie Frank will be in charge of the social hour.

Three New Names At Greenbelt High

There are three new names on the teaching staff at Greenbelt High School, although the students are familiar with the faces. Robert Martell, who had been teaching on a part time basis, has now been given a full time appointment as a Core teacher.

Two teachers were married during the Christmas holiday and are now living in Greenbelt. They are Mrs. Melvin Albert, who was formerly Marguerite Dameron, and Mrs. L. R. Edwards, who was Betty Douglas.

To make a small trellis for house plants, unwind a metal coat hanger, advises WTOP's Handy Gal. Bend it to any shape, leaving two prongs straight to stick down deep in the soil. If you have rustproof metal coat hangers, so much the better.

Medical Society Install Officers

The Prince George's Medical Society held an installation of their newly elected officers at the Prince George's General Hospital, Cheverly, Maryland, last Tuesday night. The new officers are Dr. Oscar Lavine, president; Dr. William Brainin, vice-president; Dr. Thomas Christensen, recording secretary; Dr. Aaron Deitz, corresponding secretary and Dr. Wolcott L. Ettiene, treasurer.

Sand Paper Sharpens Shears

If your scissors and kitchen shears need sharpening, says the Handy Gal, just cut through several pieces of sandpaper. The abrasion will sharpen them nicely.

To remove paint spots from leather shoes, the Handy Gal rubs the spots with the head of a wet kitchen match.

Arthur R Hitz

Funeral services were held for Arthur R. Hitz, 10-V Southway, last Thursday at Gasch's Funeral Home in Hyattsville. He was buried at Cedar Hill Cemetery. Mr. Hitz was found dead in his home last week from a gunshot wound.

Choir Resumes Practice

The Junior Choir of Community Church, directed by Mrs. Gordon Finlay, will resume its rehearsals on Thursday evenings at 7 p.m. The choir will sing at special services throughout the winter. Children between the ages of 9 and 14 are welcomed.
